

Beth Hillson to speak on “Growing Up Jewish in a Catholic Community”

Beth Hillson will present the Sunday program at the Old Town Museum on August 8. She will speak on “Growing Up Jewish in a Catholic Community”.

Beth, daughter of Harvey Hillson and Harriet Goldsmith Hillson, was born in Old Town and graduated from Old Town High in the class of 1966. Growing up she straddled two worlds, the world of her Orthodox Jewish family and that of a girl coming of age in the Fifties and Sixties.

Sunday, August 8 at 2 p.m.
