

What is this dog's name?

If you don't know, come find out on Sunday, Sept. 23rd
at the Old Town Museum, 2:00PM.

The Old Town Museum will present a program by Bill Osborne, avid collector of 78RPM records.

He will discuss the history of the birth of the recording industry and how 78's were made.

Also, he will play a number or recordings by some of the early recording stars of the last century such as,

Gene Austin, John McCormack, Vernon Dalhart,
Sophie Tucker, Maurice Chevalier, Sir Harry Lauder, Henry Burr, Enrico Caruso, Sousa's Band and more.

The program is FREE. Join us for a fun afternoon!
